DEDICATION

2004

Mr. Kavanaugh:

Over the past two years I have gotten to know Mr. Kavanaugh pretty well. For as long as I have been here at Gould, Kavie (as we call him) has been one of the most unusual teachers here at the Academy. While some of you may think that this is an insulting thing to say, everyone who knows Kavie understands that it's because of his peculiar personality that we love him so much. I can think of about a hundred times that he has proudly displayed his strange character, but the most recent time was on Thursday morning. I was taking my math exam when I heard someone skipping down the hall while singing something about polynomials - I think. I looked up just in time to see Kavie bouncing joyfully down the hall with some kind of Superman cape on. We all just gave each other confused, but knowing looks and continued on with our exam. For some reason, even the ones who were only in earshot of this lovely show knew that it was our beloved Kavie. Thanks Kav for showing all of us the true meaning of individuality. We're going to miss you next year and I know that Gould won't be nearly as exciting without you. Trina Boelsma

Mr. Beauchamp,

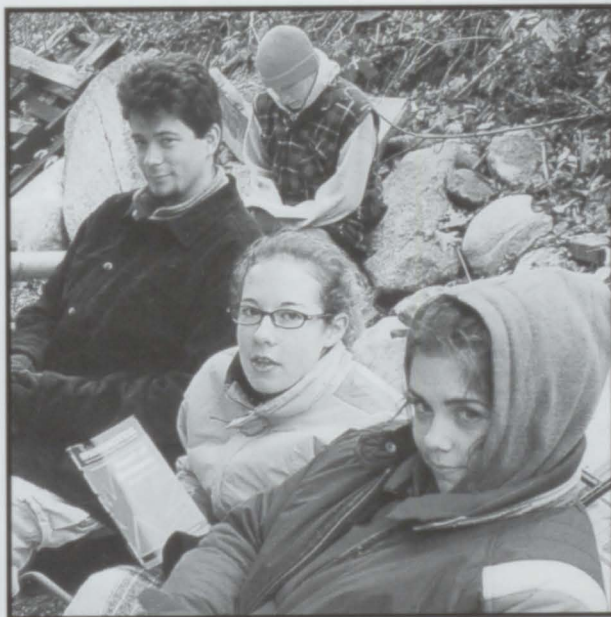

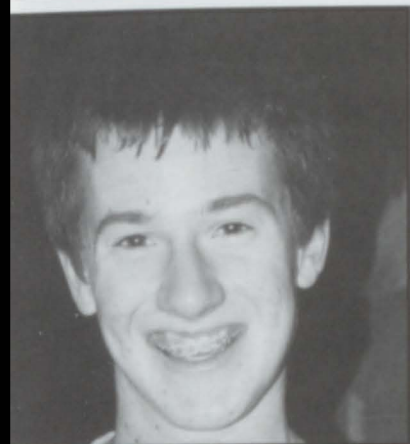

The Gould Academy - Champ connection lasted for three years. You brought Conrad, a passion for educating in the classroom and on the field, a desirable friendliness, a rare sense of humor and of course the pimp white couch. Good times! Good times! Well, as you put it, you "now have a boss other than Conrad!"

So, Mr. Beauchamp, Coach, Travis, Champ, thank you and good luck.

SENIORS!

Quinn McAllister

Mom + Dad— Thank you for everything (love, care, support, money). You have prepared me well for life! I love you!

Lauren— You control the path of your future, use it well. Ski fast, kick a! I love you!

Josh— You are the little bro that anyone would want! You always make me laugh! Be careful you don't ever blow something up, or burn anything down. I love you!

Hann— You will probably not read this, but you are too much a part of my life to leave you out! So, Nuh nuh nuh naaaaaaaaaah (SM + SW)! We have had so many special moments already, with so many more to come. I love you babe.

Class of 2003— Some I don't see often enough, others have become way too much a part of my life! Just kidding Zekel! Good luck to all!

Class of 2004— For those who have been here four years, it's been fun! For those who have been here for three, two, or one, it's still been fun! Good luck! Five-year seniors (Gabe, Francis, Meredith)— The whole ski-racing concept kind of fell apart (Keep truckin' MGadd). Still, eighth grade was a good time. Good luck with whatever it is that you pursue!

4M and TJ— Boys, it was fun! Don't let the female proctor's push you around next year! (JK Katie)

Olson Family— Thanks for everything! You coached me, did some of my laundry, listened, gave me hell, but most of all you cared. Thank you for everything!

Gould Academy faculty, campus, and maintenance— You made it an experience worth remembering, thank you for everything! If I become rich, you are welcome to call for my money!

Finally...after 5 years of high school...I'm done. Mom and Dad thanks for everything that you have given me and taught me. I can't thank you two enough, love ya. Barrett, I am the better looking brother...its true...ask anyone. Caryn- Where is reverse in my car? I can't find it..chicken airplane soldier, good times together, love ya. Kyle- you are definitely one of the goofiest kids I know...Wow...she's gotta gap between her teeth...haha, you know the rest of the story. The Hughes- both of you are the best advisors here at the academy, many thanks...that mechanical bull idea must happen, it must, thanks for all the support you have given me at GA. Mr. Bear and Ms. Libby-BOZ. Thanks for everything you two have done for me, I will miss you both. Brady- WHERE'S YOUR HEAD AT?? Head banging to DJ Sammy?? good times.. Charlie- hick, that was a sweet lacrosse video, now where is that tape? Chris- I just don't know how you talked to Mallory every night all night...I just don't know how. Big Al- roomie, the Christmas lights bring out the best of the room. Schroy- you are the conversation stopper master by far. Mallory- you are one of the coolest girls that I know..don't change.. Brooks- Junior 4 point was awesome, yeah it was cold...we are the ping pong masters...Dong Jin almost lighting his head on fire...haha..good times. Chuck- HFC for life. Heather- I'll come visit you...you're such a cool girl to hang out with...I'll miss you.. Graham and Will-Boys you gotta hold down Holden. Keep it real.

Catherine Cook

Mum and Dad: I am so grateful for all the opportunities you have given me and all the memories I have made from them.

Mr. and Mrs. Alford: All I can really say to 'the gossip king' and 'the queen of prime-time TV' is: hoosfoos and lubba.

Coniston: "Summer came and went without a warning; all at once I looked and you were gone. Time was all we had until we said goodbye." 2-double-03. Everyone who has been here for me: thank you for loving and teaching me. Gould has opened my eyes.

"Christopher Robin came down from the Forest to the Bridge, feeling all sunny and careless, and just as if twice nineteen didn't matter a bit, as it didn't on such a happy afternoon, and he thought that if he stood on the bottom rail of the bridge, and leant over, and watched the river slipping slowly away beneath him, then he would suddenly know everything that there was to be known."

Mom - your love, care and selflessness have taught me so much more than you will ever know. I owe you everything. Dad - even though you complain about it most of the time, thank you for always being there for me.

Mr. Taylor - your wisdom will never cease to make me feel better. Thank you for everything you have taught me about myself and about the world around me.

To Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Alford, and Mrs. Nesbitt - You have always being there to help me out, no matter what, and it has meant more to me than you will ever know. Thank you for your sincerity and kindness and for giving me someone to talk to. To everyone who has ever meant something to me, you know who you are. Thank you all.

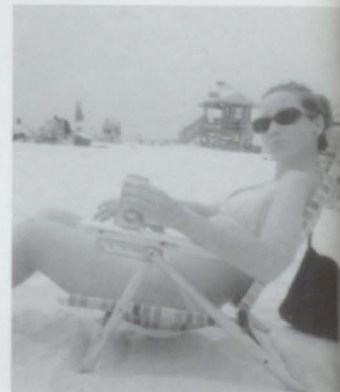

Lani Malapan & Sarah Velte

Mom and Dad – I appreciate everything that you’ve done for me and I love you lots. Caroline – I’ll miss you. Good Luck next year and just remember you’ll never have a roomie as good as me!!

Mom and Dad – I couldn’t ask for better parents, I love you. Sara Mols, Pauly, Amo – You guys mean so much, I’d choose you any day. I love you. Lizzy – Hang in there hottie, you are so hot. Don’t change, we love you, keep playing that pinball. Annoyance, fiery hot, brash, craziness, random, exuberant, funday, laughter, loud, pink, the crack, Cape Cod, Vermont, common sense, growing in every way possible . . . Squish, Squish . . . later Serge - we've been roommates for 2 years...it's been a fun time. Hopefully we'll stay in touch throughout college.

Jackson - what can I say...this year was fun. Captain A.D.D...Goldbond...Bengay...good times.

First and foremost to Ma and Pa Haskell: By pushing me, fighting with me, and supporting me for the last 18 years, you guys both remain the most honorable and kindest people I know. I love you guys. Oh, and thanks for the ADD gene dad. Luke, you're one weird dude, but don't change, you make me look normal. Orono kids, I miss you all too much. Thanks for keeping me in the loop. You guys rule, especially the guys. Can't wait til this summer. All the best girls, you cuties. Boys of Gould, you are the most interesting crew of kids I've ever seen. Caldwell, you'll be missed. Girls of Gould, I think only 7 or so of you know my name, but uh, have a nice life. I'll miss my roomies this year and the seniors last year, Billings, Drew, and oh yes, Jack. Ian, Matt, Serge, you guys defy words. Keep in touch gang. Finally, thanks to the teachers, old and new. Phip, you're my favorite, happy retirement. Champs and Coach Olson, thanks for the baseball memories. Everyone ends with a quote, so here's mine: "Try not to become a man of success, but rather, try to become a man of value." — Albert Einstein"

It has been an exciting two years here. I have met many people and gained so much by being at Gould. This last year I have had a lot of fun. I want to thank the roomies because they are good kids and we had good times. My parents have played an important role so I would like to thank them too. Thanks Dad and Mom for putting up with me. You have taught me the most. The last thing goes to my sister Hills, I will always be looking after you, it's a brother thing. MP

"Whether I am right or whether I am wrong, whether I find my place in this world or never belong I've gotta be me." ~Sammy Davis Jr.

Brendan: You mean more to me than you will ever know. You are my best friend and I love you for always being true to me. You pick me up when I fall and always keep me in check. Sometimes I would be lost without you by my side and if I am lost you always find me. We have had many good times and many bad times but in the end everything works out. Best friends always and forever.

Betsy: the sister I never had.

We have done some crazy things in our days at the Academy and I will never forget them - from the late night talks to mud-sliding in the rain with Rec Ski team captains and Kermit in between. I love you Kermit. Evan: I am sorry for all the times past, present and future in which I try to kill you. Teachers: You all have helped make me the person I am today. Many of you took a chance on me and pushed me to my limits and then some. Thank you all for everything you have done and thank you for all you have given me.

Betsy Jorgenson

"Surely education should equip us to know what to fear and what to be uncertain of. Surely it should equip us in personal honor." -M.C. Richards

Looking back, it feels like I was a completely different person before I came to Gould. These two years have taught me a lot about life, and I am so thankful for all of the good friends and good times here. Mom, Dad and Jessy, I'm beginning to think that I have really under-appreciated you. We've been through a lot as a family these past couple years; thanks for repeatedly showing me how much you care, oftentimes without getting a lot in return. When I think of Gould, it's the building forts, being a blackberry, Risk, ski lifts that speed up and then slow down, the PDP, playing in the snow, and hitting 6 batters when I was learning how to pitch. Tea, I miss you, if weren't for you I would have never known Stalin, Castro, Mussolini, Noriega, Saddam, and Tea Jr.! Erik, I really value all of our breakfast talks. Rebekah, there would have been no PDP without you, and thank you too for helping me through tough times. Amy, I don't know what I would have done without you, and the mud-sliding, puddle-jumping, camping in the rain, everything else. I enjoy every moment of our time together. Brendan, you mean a lot to me, oh, and thanks for showing us where to find some books that day in the library. All of my teachers here, thank you, you are all remarkable people and I have learned so much from you!

Brendan Forbes

After awhile you learn the subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul and you learn that love doesn't mean possession and company doesn't mean security. And you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises and you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes ahead with the grace of an adult not the grief of a child. And you learn to build your roads today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans and futures have ways of falling down in mid-flight. After awhile you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too close so you plant your own garden and decorate with your own soul instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers. And you learn that you really can endure, that you are really strong and you really do have worth.

Amy: Best friend, thank you for always being there for me and helping me through anything, no matter what.

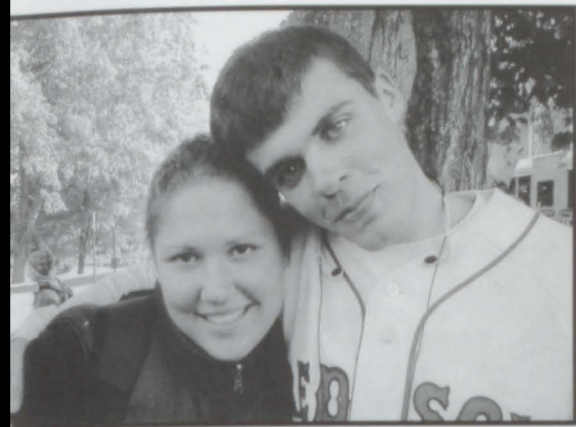

Betsy: I hope you know how awesome of a person you are. I'm really glad I met you and hope we always remain friends.

Amy G: Let's fight!

Erin: Thanks for being a wonderful sister and for giving me all the freshman/sophomore friends.

Caitlin: Have fun at the Academy. Ski fast and don't get in too much trouble, so just be like me.

Mom and Dad: Thanks for letting me go to Gould and letting me ski race. You were right about moving up here all along.

Patricia Gunther

Susie Sams & Allison Demshar

The only advice that I can give is to be good. If you can't be good, be careful. And if you can't do either, name it after me.

Mom and Dad, you are the best, I would never be where I am if it wasn't for you. I love you both so much and am so grateful for all you have done for me. To the crew behind the chastity doors in the virgin vault: Loie, Whitney, Chrissy, Annie, Allie . . . I can't say it all, it would take all day and I wouldn't be able to even come close to how I feel, so I just want to say that I love you all so much. I know you all liked my pumbas and you're all the bestest ever in the world. Drink one for all the times we said we wouldn't and did it anyway and almost always got away with it . . . To my friends Lindsey, Rita, Andy, Ani, Callin, Betsy, Bree, Ryoko, Heather, Gabe, Brooks, Collin, Jim, Brock, Nick, Josh, James, Tom, Whitney, Brady, Jack, Alex, Taylor, Mallory and to all those not written: We had some really good times. "ZUNGERFUD, and they will love each other very much, hey wha happend, HU HAAH, I am a mexican ski racer, tell this you @%&^$*! star". Wherever you go, no matter what the weather, always bring your own sunshine. "Sooner or later we all discover that the important moments in life are not the advertised ones, not the birthdays, the graduations, the weddings, not the great goals achieved. The real milestones are less prepossessing. They come to the door of memory unannounced, stray dogs that amble in, sniff around a bit and simply never leave. Our lives are measured by these."

my life has been changed since i came to Gould. (in good way of course) time goes by so fast that i can't believe it's been 2 years since i came here. i've been happy in this place and i will miss you guys so much. remember me whenever i will remember you.

DongJin Kim

To my parents...

I am so thankful for whole my life that I was blessed with your presence. I'm really thankful that you are my parents. Because of you, I could make it here. I hope that I made you proud as your only son.

Mom, Dad, and my lovely sister Eunhee,

I love you so much!!

Patrick Kim

First of all, I thank my parents for their devotions that they send me other country so that I have been able to let other country's cultures and experience its educational system. There had been many hardships and times that I had stay up late or be awake for several days to catch up all the school works. Sometimes, I really wanted to give up all works and stay in a rest. However, whenever I reminded people, especially my parents, who always encouraged me to give up, I just pushed myself to get the best result on my situation. At last, I could afford to take several AP classes and junior level English skill on my senior year. Thank god I met you, mom and dad.

Also, I thank Ms. and Mr. Whittington that they always didn't save their time to help and understand me. Any can never forget the time our advisees enjoyed fishing and dinner at your camp and apartment. You guys were favorite advisors ever in my school life.

Woops, I almost forgot you. There was my second family who cared me not to feel lonesome from staying abroad.

Sometimes, they invited me to have a dinner with them and they provided me shelter that I could take a rest when I had nowhere to go over short break. The you so much Ms., Mr. Wolff and Francis, my old roommate.

Hakuryu Shimizu!!!! It was quite fun when we were roommate, wasn't it? Did know how sad I was when we divorced after a year? And Matt Tosi!!!! I won't forget the moment you helped me to submit my college application just on time. We were laughing for an hour and I couldn't sleep that night for bad laughed stomachache. Maybe I had a stupid "ITCH that I couldn't scratch", huh? You know what I talking about, right?

Dong-Jin and Hong-Kyu (Howard), you guys were my only upperclassmen. I could communicate perfectly in Gould. Si-Woo, Hyun-Ho(Fred), and Myoung(Jay), good luck on your senior year and applying colleges, so as of Korean underclassmen and Americans. I believe we will keep in touch, although the school days are over, right?

I have so many things to say more, but the space doesn't allow me to. I always had waited for graduating school desperately; however, I suddenly realized that I actually did not want to leave this school when the graduation came along. Gould will remain as my old school and the time that I lived in Holden will be my favorite moment within memory forever. Also, I won't forget the place I usually go, backyard of Backstage, back side of baseball field, and railroad.

Farewell, GA.

Whitney Hilton & Polina Knyazeva

Mom and Dad — Thanks for always being here for me and believing in me. You have always supported and helped me even when I said I didn't want it. I'm glad you did. I know you will always be here for me no matter how far I go away and I can't thank you enough for what you have gone through to get me to where I am and where I want to go. Thanks a lot, I love you so much.

Every day is my birthday!

I am thankful for bananas.

Quinn & Lo — "Friends are God's way of taking care of us" Both you guys have definitely done your share of taking care of me. Thanks for always being there for me when I need someone to talk to and a place to stay. Quinn we had some good times. I'm going to miss them and so. "I'm picking up what you're putting down" haha... We've done so much and I can't even begin to mention everything. I'm going to miss you both a lot. I love you both.

Thanks to:

Mom - What can I say? You are always the first one to go to bat for me. It always helps me to know I have one person in my corner that would go to the end of the world to help me if I need it. We're in it together and will be forever.

Dad - For letting me find my own way when I had doubts. You've supported my activities and choices for years and something tells me you knew I couldn't give up on what I was really here for.

Grandparents - I couldn't have had half the experiences I have had without your support. Thank you, and someday I will get the hang of postcards.

Lenny Britton - It all started at Suicide Six and went from there. Thanks for everything.

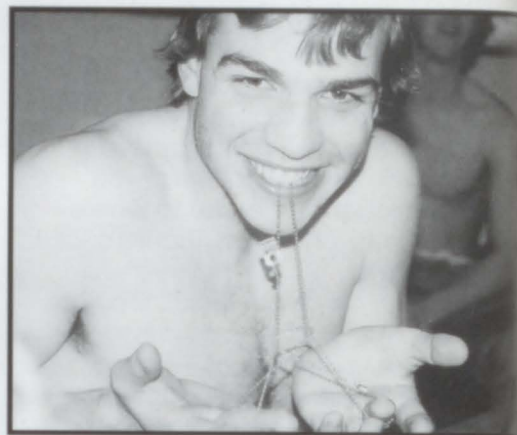

Mrs Manning - My mom away from home, thanks for all those times you tried to help and I wouldn't listen. Now that I'm older I can completely see what you were saying. Like so many others before me I have to say, Mrs. Manning you were right for 4 years.

Mr. Manning - Remember freshman year when we were jumping from the windows? Thanks.

Katie Reed - Always there for me. I know I like to pretend I have everything under control and nothing bothers me, but you listened anyway. When I was down it was always you that I knew I could talk with and would leave that conversation feeling better than when it started. You are an amazing girl and will have an amazing life, that much I'm sure of.

Coaches - For preparing me for what's to come.

Jim, Nick, Colin, and Gill - Good times, and more to come
Quote: "It's a non-issue"

Gill Butler

It's been fun skiing here for 5 years but now it's time to go skiing somewhere else. Thank you Mom and Dad. I love you. Jorie - Have a good time for the next two years. Keep skiing fast. To All The People That Were Chill - Thanks for the good times and word up. To Dan Kunkle - You really let this place go down the tubes. Thank God I'm getting out now. Peace.

Gabe Ohlson

Brooks Lord

Mom and Pop - Thank you for supporting me through these four years, I love you. Taylor - 4 years Bro, I love you like a brotha. Hold Strong at the Academy.

Gabe - Words cannot describe how much you mean to me, I will miss you. To Hick and the rest of my boys/girls (you know who you are) - We had our good times and some swag times, I will miss you all.

Gould has everything I longed for: small community, latest technologies, lots of sports and even more fun! I came here this year, and I wish I could stay another...

Me a "Computer wizard"?

I enjoy computers and working with them, but I will never consider myself good at it. I have learned much, and taught a little, in the linux classes, still I consider my knowledge ridiculously small for any subject. And also I think I will never be as good as I can be, there's always something to be done better. Especially with computers, but it's true for snowboarding, math and literature as well... In transition between the French and US school systems, I've seen, done and learned more in one year here than in 14 years of strict French academic classes.

What makes you think that?

Eric Love

Thank you Mom, Dad, Rebecca, and Oscar. You guys have always been there for me and I wouldn't have been able to make it without you. Thanks to my friends Chad, Connor, Alex, Alex, George, John Charnas, Spike (at times)(what time of the month is it for you Spike?), and Patricia just to name a few.

My favorite quotes are.....

"Spike, you are so dumb. No wonder you don't have a girlfriend or a boyfriend for that matter."

CRACK... "AHHHH! What happened? I HIT MYSELF IN THE HEAD WITH MY CAST." Chad

Patricia, how do you keep a blond busy for hours? I DON'T KNOW. Patricia, how do you keep a blond busy for hours? I DON'T KNOW. etc, etc.

Despite the talk I can comfortably say that coming to Gould has been the best decision that I have made in my life. I can't imagine what I'd be doing if I stayed in T.F. But I've got 4 years in the bag here with some chillin people so here it goes:

Shifrins and the Fam: Thank You for all your support. Spaghetti and Root Beer hit the spot.

Between running in daisy fields during an island summer and reading Thoreau in an empty library, my life has become a mosaic of experiences. Cementing my actions, convictions, and passions have been the influences that have begun to outline who I am. There is no way to define yourself in the first seventeen years of your life, just as art deserves lengthy observation and not instantaneous identification; those pieces have only just started to be placed and connected. Thank you to those who have already laid down some of the picture, those who have adjusted the pieces, and those who have yet to do so.

Daddy I will never stop saying goodnight to the moon. You mean so much to me, thank you for always being there. I love you so much. Mom We've had both our good and bad times, but through it all you've made me into the person I am today. Leland and Waylan Against my better judgment, and the bruises, migraines, and headlocks you've given me (and vice versa), I love you both, you beasts. Kirsten You are my best friend...I love you. Jason, Lauren, Peter, and Landon You're all the reason I haven't gone crazy. Siekman 5 words: Thank God It's All Over. Doc O Thank you for all the cookies, soy milk, and hugs. I love you, never change. Mrs. Siekman, Ms. Chapman, and Mrs. Sysko I never would have survived without you. Ms. Shifrin Thank you for all the advice.....and the Smarties. Ms. Carlson You've taught me about life, love, and books. Ms. Phillips You made me love English. Dr. Clarke "Epic" hardly describes... Mr. Alford Jefe, gracias por todo. Nunca te olvidaré. Ms. Eaton Never change. Mrs. Hughes You are a beautiful person, thanks for the mothering. Coaches You both pushed me...shin splits, bruises, and sore legs later I've learned the game of soccer. Thank you. Rebekah You'll always make me want to fly. Mason So what do you want to do? I want to dance! C. K, K.M., C.C., K.B., S. S., S..F., C.C., R S., M. F., A. D., B. N., J.G., N.F., C.M., C.D., B.H., and J.R. It's been a crazy ride. Four Point Girls '03 Hear us roar. Class of '04 Live like you'll die tomorrow. Play like you'll live forever. Remember who you are.

We did not change as we grew older; we just became more clearly ourselves.

It's been a long time since I entered the Academy four years ago as a punk-a. freshman, I've made a lot of changes in that time against all odds I made it to my senior year. To many people I owe thanks, and to many, who tried to make high school harder for me I smile as I prove myself. Gould, it's been an interesting four years and I can safely say that I enjoyed it. To everyone closest to me thank you for standing by my side through this first phase of my life. Mom and Dad- I am tempted to leave this blank because only in action could I ever express appreciation for all the time, patience, guidance, and love you have shown me. You gave me life, then you taught me how to make it great. I will carry. Thank you, I love you both so much. Krissy and Andrew- You trampled down the path ahead of me, and made it easier to walk. Being the youngest I realize that what didn't kill me definitely made me stronger and I want to thank you both for the strength that I have. I would also like to let it be known that I remember all the shit you have pulled me out of and I will return the favors to you someday. Andrew, remember the time I got eaten by the swamp. Thanks bro. It would have been really nice to come as far as I did without you two. Here's to many years together. Scott- From the day I was born you have been my best friend through thick and through thin we have remained friends, and even when things got tough we stayed strong. I wouldn't trade it for anything in the world. You're my life anchor. Anything you ever need man, I got you covered. Remember the time we drove a million miles in the minivan. It was great. "Grafton Mound". From birth till death. I love you. To All My Buds: Andy, Brooks, James, Fwolff, Shroy, Pkim, Sarah, Jim, Gabe, The Boy, Sketchy Steve, Lani, Mallory, Colin, DJ Whit, Toph, Hick, Alex, B-Sol, Fred, Haku, Farmer Morgan, Odub, Caldwell, Ash, A.Hughes, In Jae, Rayn, Serge, Jackson, Ian, Loie, Whitney B, Lulu, Cheney, Brock, Lannon, Humbert, Katie R, Soons, Joe Z, Fitz, The Tea, Polina, Jefferson, Lizzy, Piazza, Johnny, Suzy, Marcus, Josh S, Tyler, Yuji, Joel, Kurt, Miles, Jay, Kenzi, And all the rest. I love each and every one of you. It's been good. To Chris and Alex- May the green Jeep roll. Woody- You have opened my eyes to something brilliant, I'll never forget what you have taught me forever. Impact Remains man. Bret- As a freshman you kept me in line, then as I grew you showed me the way. You taught me well and I want to thank you for helping me through the Academy, and leaving me with some important values. something to be able to paint a particular picture, or to carve a statue, and so to make a few objects beautiful; but it is far more glorious to carve and paint the very atmosphere and medium through which we look, which morally we can do. Final Words from the Academy: I would like to thank my parents for spending $105,000 on my education at Gould. It was well spent. I could have had a Hummer H2 and a Cadillac Escalade for that price. I would like to thank Mr. Zicarelli and Mr. Bean. They have both been great inspirations and role models for me at the Academy. I would like to thank the Hughes for being my 5th advisors in 5 years. Thanks: I would like to thank the Gould Academy ski racing program for helping me realize that ski racing is not fun. I'm much happier now that I am part of the freeride team and I don't know where I would be if I was still ski racing. I would like to thank George W. Bush and Mr. Kunkle for inspiring me to pursue a career in public speaking. I would like to thank Ms. Whittington for teaching me how to do it and telling me my hooded sweatshirt was not in dress code every math class. I would like to thank Alan (the lunch guy who got fired) the Gould lunch servers, and the bearded lady at subway for keeping me well fed during my 5 years at the Academy. I would like to thank the moose lady and Ms. Head for an exciting sophomore four point. I would like to thank the movie Office Space for changing my life. I would like to thank Mr. Shifrin for being an inspiration to my soccer, tennis, and math career at Gould. I would like to thank the GA'zette for endless hours of entertainment. I never knew Gould could be so exciting!

When I look at pictures of myself, taken early in my experience at Gould, I realize how much I have grown and changed, not only physically, but also mentally as a person in the last couple of years. I arrived at Gould Academy in Maine without any idea of what to expect because that was the first time I had ever been in the United States in entire my life. Everything was new, everything, which I did not expect happened to me. I entered my second year of high school as a seventeen year-old who was thousands and thousands of miles from home, Japan, and was a new member of the Junior Class. These pictures show me doing what was most important in my life at the time: studying different languages and arts, learning American culture with American friends, struggling with English, fighting against discrimination. The time at Gould Academy was the hardest time in my entire life, but those experiences definitely helped me to grow intellectually, personally and academically.

If there is one common occurrence, which takes place for every single person in the diverse student body at Gould Academy, it is that we all grow up much faster for having lived there. I do not know whether this speeding up of the maturing process is generally good or bad, but I definitely have benefited. Meeting with American people was probably the best benefit in my life. Each person totally looks different and yet always positive, and passionate. People and students at Gould Academy always teach and help me discover my thoughts and things that I really need. What I really appreciate is that they listen to all my ideas and feelings and they also try to communicate with me.

Meanwhile, the classroom has become a whole different world for me. At first, the teachers and students alike preached the importance of learning, but it seemed obvious that their most important concern was grades. This confused me that teachers looked as if they only cared about grades and honors. In some classes teachers genuinely believe that learning is the most important objective and encourage us to collaborate with each other and make use of all resources. In fact, in English class this year, they built a more student-based course. This was especially hard for international students because of the academic level and language. However, I was working hard so I could see a bit of achievement in this class. This improvement influenced my other classes. Whether in Calculus or English: I am required to approach every problem and idea independently and creatively rather than just to regurgitate the teacher's words. In discussion with fellow students, both inside and outside of class, the complex thoughts flowing through everyone's brains are evident.

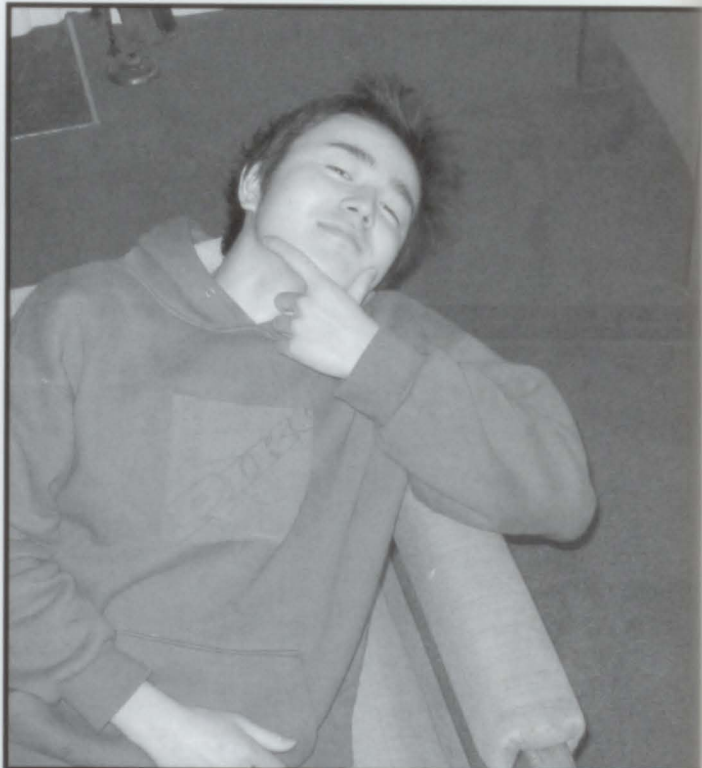

I also believe that the most important concepts that I have espoused in being independent of my parents for half of each year, deal with being a cosmopolitan person. The school's faculty and students are conscious about keeping all of the kids' attention from being based only on the school. One group or another brings issues of global concern forth. Along with being more aware of issues of importance, I realize my personality has evolved. First, my mannerism has changed: the school stresses giving respect to everyone and everything. A former English teacher often said, "Character can be measured not by one's interaction with people who are better off than him or herself, but by one's interactions with those who are worse off." Basically, if I have an opinion about something, it is wrong not to voice that opinion. Of course, being obnoxious is not the idea. The key is to become a master of communication with teachers, fellow students, all of whom are a part of the community, and as importantly, with those who are outside of the school.

I do not want to make Gould Academy sound as if it produces perfect students, because it actually does not. But the school deserves a lot of credit for its efforts. Often, some part of the mold does remain. As the college experience approaches, I am still the same person, only modified to better maximize my talents. However, I still have some time to play Track and visit with my friends. Perhaps one of the few similarities between these photographs and me now is my smile.

Brother Jebidiah- Four years! We made it man.

Karl- Hooah DGD!

Evan- Davidson Rugger... The pain train is a commin! Put in a good word with the IRA for me.

JZ- Gentoo Genius... One of these days I will give gentoo a try... Until then I may never know how cool it is. Have fun out in the real world. When I take over the world you can have first dibs on a continent.

Em- I guess it's time for college. Next time Phil comes around say hi for me.

Everyone Else- I would like to thank everyone who has helped me along the way. It would be impossible to list who you are. Those of you who have you know who you are.

Mannings- You have been my parents away from home. There have been some crazy times here at the Academy but you have always been there, willing to do anything you can for me and everyone else. You are the best dorm parents ever. Thank you.

Mom + Dad- Thank you for making me stay freshmen year and supporting me through the rest of my stay here at the Academy.

Rebekah Lindsley & Emilie Swett

To me, friendships and family are more important than anything else in the world. Whatever happened or will happen, I will always remember the friendships I made here and I hope I will never lose sight of them:

Emilie (McNugget)- We've had our good times and our bad times ever since freshman year, and throughout it all we've avoided killing each other. You know what I mean. I hope we always stay so close.

Betsy- YEAH PDP! I could not have done much without you. You really saved me a lot this year. (p.s. Tire swing?!)

Amy- Giant balloons, playgrounds, danger tape, late night talks in the foyer... I will never forget them. You are the only person who could get me to watch Cross Roads twice in one lifetime.

George- Remember how it all started? "She told me I had a bad attitude". The rest is history. Best friends forever!

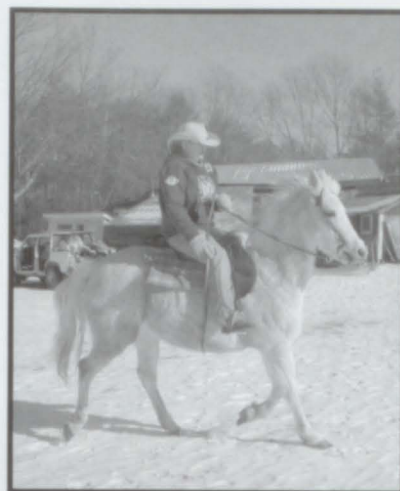

To the Quad and the DGD- Guys, it's been great.

Emily Small- You are so smart and I wish you the best in college because I think you could do something really spectacular.

Mom- Thanks. I love you.

To my family- I know you guys spent a lot of money to send me here, and I know I put up a big fuss, but I'm glad that I met the people that I did.

To my favorite men (you know who you are)- I love you very much and you make me the happiest of all. Good luck everyone!

Husband, The Better Half, Mrs. Whit, Ms. Gardner, Davis and Everyone Else Who Really Knows Me- Thank you for believing in me when others doubted. I couldn't have done it without you and I will never be able to repay you.

Kimi- I have only known you a year but you have impacted me so much. Be a good captain, keep it real, make the game love it. Remember as hard as it is for you (and me) you have to be the one to keep them all together no matter what. I love you, be strong.

Jay- Thanks for all the computer fixes and all the time spent fixing me. We have always been able to talk, never let that change.

Homeslice (Rebekah)- "Whatever you are by nature, keep never desert your line of talent. Be what nature intended you for and you will succeed."-Sydney Smith 4 years, we made it. Thank you for always being there, never change no matter what they tell you.

B. Wood- I am so glad I have had the privilege of knowing you. You taught me so much about life and myself. You were there for me when no one knew I needed someone. I love you and everything you have taught me. "In the darkest hour the soul is replenished and given strength to continue and endure."

Erik- Without you I would not be who I am today. I will be here without you next year, don't you dare ever forget me. I love you, and I am glad to have grown with you these past four years.

"So we must meet apart-
You were there-I-here-
With just the Door ajar
That Oceans are-and Prayer-
And that White Sustenance-Despair"-Emily Dickinson

B. Wood

Madre and Padre - Thank you for supporting me in most of my endeavors, and guiding me through the perilous mire that is high school.

Mr. Bean - You have been the greatest friend I could hope for at the Academy, and I am sincerely grateful to you and Ms. Libby for your everlasting kindness and encouragement.

Brittany - You are my best friend and you always have been, and hopefully, you will remain so. You are part of me. Some of you have transformed and altered my existence - I express congratulations and possibly gratitude.

To My Brothers and Sister - We're in this life together
To my Friends - You know who you are -May the merriment endure till the end.

To the Ladies of My Life - Past, Present, and Future - I look forward to seeing you all, sometime.

Go for it !

Love Mom, Dad,
Margaret & Cats

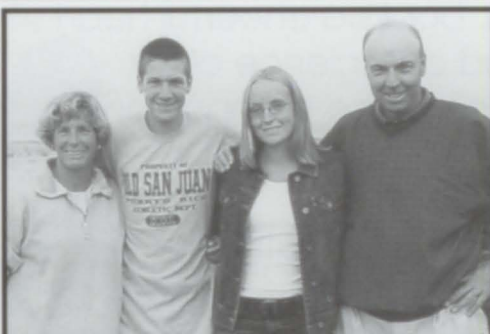

Brendan,
 You've had your ups and downs
 And you persevered through it all
 And we are all very proud of you

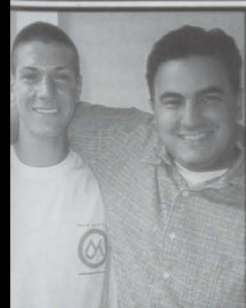

Love,
 Mom, Dad, Erin and Caitlin

CONGRATULATIONS DR. LOVE

You have become a focused, hard working and talented individual. The variety of opportunities you have had and the many adults you have worked with have all contributed to your success as a young adult. Follow your passions, your heart and your interests. Fill the room with laughter and enjoy yourself as you begin the next phase of your life. Hold onto the memories and the friendships you have had as you intertwine them with the future. We commend you on your accomplishments and are very proud of you. Great job! We love you. Love, Mom, Dad and Rebecca

Best Wishes
and Congratulations on a job well done,
Rebekah!

With love from
Your whole family

Friends, books a cheerful heart
and conscience clear
Are the choice companions
We have here.

To my precious daughter Betsy,

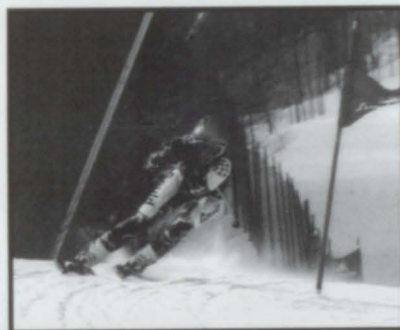

I am so proud of the person you are and who you are becoming. You have an inner fire and determination that will take you very far! Continue to press on Betsy, and accept no compromises.

Congratulations on your graduation!

Love,

Dad

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

To our little Bumbasnukka:

We are so proud of everything you have accomplished over the years and all the hard work you have put in to get where you are today.

Much love,

Mom and Dad
and All Your Family Members

Alexander and Christopher Thompson

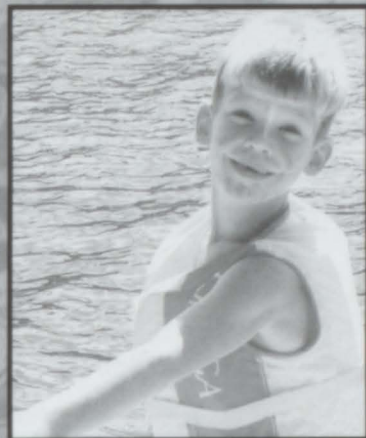

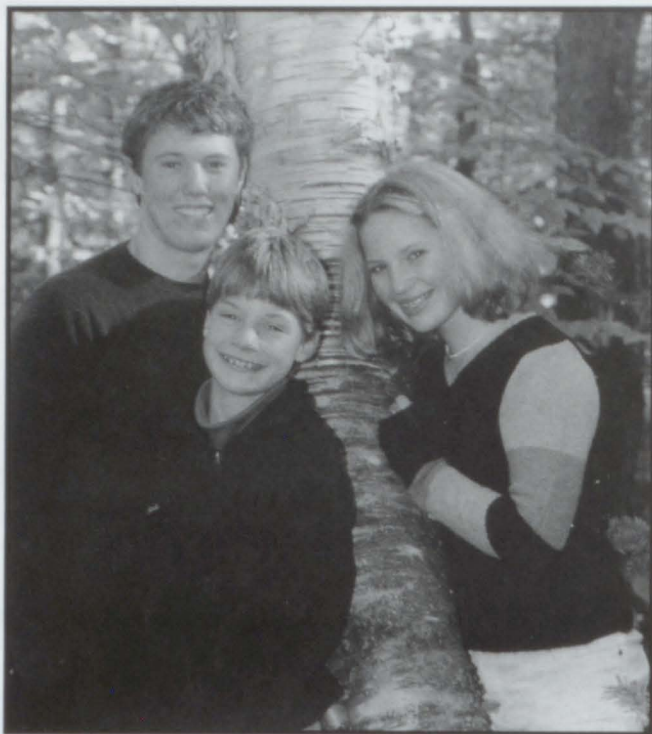

Life isn't a destination - it's a journey.
We all come upon unexpected curves and turning points, mountaintops and valleys.
Everything that happens to us shapes who we are becoming.
And in the adventure of each day,
we discover the best in ourselves.

Congratulations Christopher and Alexander!
We are very proud of both of you.
With love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations, Matt.
We always knew you had it in you.
With all our love,
Mom & Dad

Away sails Captain Frog
and Little Froggy
on a treasure hunt.

It seems like it was only yesterday, and you were "Little Froggy." Joy.
Now you're "Captain Froggy"... graduating and sailing off on your next great adventure!

We love you and we're very proud of you,
Mom-Mom, Dad & Bryon

Dear Matt,

There are those that reach for the stars.....
And then there are those that grab them and yank them right out of the sky!
I'm so proud of you and I feel so lucky to be your Mom!

May the Road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
And the rains fall soft upon your fields
And may God always hold you
In the hollow of His hand.....

With so much love,
Mom
